Joseph Arias

Description of Algorithms:

First fit – This algorithm works by finding the first memory slot that fits and instantly allocates the memory there.

Best fit – This algorithm works by finding the memory slot that is closest to the size of it.

Worst fit – This algorithm works by finding the memory slot that fits and is the largest available memory slot.

Description of Implementation: